

The weather looked a bit dodgy so Ronnie and I decided to take the Troopy to the August Cars and Coffee. Bob Rees rang us and said it was bucketing down in town so he was taking the car too. When we drove along Princess Royal Drive, we could see lots of blue sky heading our way ☁️ Andrew, Garry T and John McK were much braver than us, they had ridden their bikes. Nice to catch up while enjoying a cuppa and having a look at old cars and bikes while it was sunny & warm

AM I LOSING IT? (AGAIN)

There's a certain member (who would prefer to remain anonymous for obvious reasons) who went on an afternoon run to the Kendenup Store, with a couple of other members, some time ago. They enjoyed socializing over a cuppa and when they decided to head for home, one decided he had to "go before you go" so the other two decided to stroll across the carpark to look at an interesting car parked there; the said member had his jacket draped over his arm.

Some time later the two were walking back towards their bikes when said member spotted a wallet lying in the carpark. He knew it wasn't his, this one had "embossing" on it, so he picked it up and headed across to the Store to hand it in. On the way he decided to open the wallet to see who the unfortunate soul was who had lost it; the face on the driver's licence was very, very familiar! Err, the "embossing" was tyre tread pattern; someone had run over it.

This caused an outburst of laughter and words to the effect of "imagine how silly you'd look handing in your own wallet at the Store!" Oh nooo! I'm definitely losing it! (AGAIN!)

A woman and a baby were in the doctor's examining room, waiting for the babies first examination. The doctor arrived, examined the baby, checked his weight, and being a little concerned, asked if the baby was breast fed or bottle fed. "Breast Fed" she replied. "Well strip down to your waist," the doctor ordered. She did. He pinched her nipples, then pressed, kneaded and rubbed both breasts for a while in a detailed examination. Motioning her to get dressed he said, "No wonder this baby is underweight. You don't have any milk" "I know "she said. "I'm his grandma, but I'm glad I came."
