HOSPICE RIDE- Details next magazine.

A stranger was sitting next to little Johnny on a plane when the stranger turned to little Johnny and said, "Let's talk. I've heard that flights go quicker if you strike up a conversation with your fellow passengers.

Little Johnny, who had just opened his book, closed it slowly, and said to the stranger, "What would you like to discuss?" "Oh, I don't know," said the stranger. "How about nuclear power?"

"OK" said little Johnny. "That could be an interesting topic. But let me ask you a question first.—A horse, a cow and a deer all eat grass. The same stuff. Yet the deer excretes little pellets, while the cow turns out a flat patty, and a horse produce clumps of dries grass. Why do you suppose that is?" "Gosh" said the stranger. "I've no idea."

"Well then," said little Johnny, "How is it that you feel qualified to discuss nuclear power, when you don't know
